Dear Mr. Dulles:

I wish to express my appreciation and that of my staff for the most informative briefings received during our visit to The Central Intelligence Agency on 18 March 1959.

The briefings were exceptionally well developed and pointed to our areas of interest. The speakers impressed us with their excellent knowledge of the subjects under discussion and certainly enhanced our understanding of these very difficult topics. I assure you the information received will be very beneficial to us in our present study.

I again wish to express our sincere appreciation for the time and effort exerted in our behalf.

Sincerely yours,
